The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Senn in view of Feher.

As noted previously, Senn discloses a steering wheel comprising a heat pipe that is meant to be utilized with an electric heat source to heat the wheel.

Feher teach that a heat pipe arrangement in a steering wheel can be used for heating or cooling purposes by employing a thermoelectric heat pump that can be switched to heating or cooling mode. Further, to facilitate the return of liquid to the evaporation section within the heat pipe, Feher teach the use of a conventional wicking layer that ensures condensate travel even against the influence of gravity (see lines 49-54 of column 3 of Feher). Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the instant invention was made to replace the electric heater of Senn with the thermoelectric heat pump of Feher and utilize the wicking layer as taught therein. Such a construction would inherently meet the above claims because, although the claims recite that the claimed device is adapted to transfer heat from one region to another "solely under function of the heat pipe", such a recitation merely recites an inherent capability of any tubular heat pipe, even one associated with a heater or heat pump device (such as the electric heater of applicant's claim 8 or the thermoelectric device of Feher). In other words, when disconnected from a source of electrical power, the heat pipe of Senn modified to incorporate a conventional wick structure as taught in Feher will inherently be capable of transferring heat between sections of the pipe at different temperatures.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
